

Please do not allow cell phone use aboard public flights. The passenger area is a small confined space with no where to go to get away from listening to a stranger's one-sided, private conversation. Also, people seem to speak much louder on a cell phone. Cell phones are already a nuisance in so many other public areas... please leave us one sanctuary!!